ABOUT THIS GROUP

The primary goal of the Index to Chiropractic Literature (ICL) is to provide indexing of the peer-reviewed literature produced by chiropractic publishers. Originally a print index, ICL has been online since 2000. ICL's Web site links to valuable resources far beyond the periodical index. The purpose of this LinkedIn group is to increase awareness about the peer-reviewed chiropractic literature, and to give group members opportunities to share information about chiropractic research.
